Dear Daniel

I write to offer my sincere thanks and profound gratitude to you, Clare and the team for the work that was undertaken regarding the creation of Engage & Influence – Lendlease’s Frontline Leadership Program.

The time that you and your organisation invested in gaining an understanding of who Lendlease is and the intent of the program, proved invaluable in expediently producing a product that met (and in many cases exceeded) the desired outcomes.

The feedback received from the pilot sessions has been overwhelmingly positive. We have now developed the Train the Facilitator program and are in the process of taking this to all of our operations around the world.

Daniel, you and the team have been part of creating one of Lendlease’s signature leadership programs – a program that is making a difference to the way in which our Frontline Leaders engage and influence activities on our sites across the globe, each and every day.

I wish you and your team continued success.
